Office for Public Witness (OPW): The public policy information and advocacy office of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA). Its task is to advocate, and help others advocate, social witness perspectives and policies in the nation’s capital.

Since 1946 OPW has offered a chance to translate the church’s deep convictions about justice, peace, and freedom from words into reality. The political process is where decisions are made that can help make the kind of world God intends.
